The Author, Brisbane, 2006. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 1st Edition. 8vo - over 7¾ - 9¾" tall. Compiled from numerous sources including the United States Army Air Force and the Royal Australian Air Force. x + 566 pages; b&w photographs, maps, bibliography, index. [SIGNED BY AUTHOR, who died in May 2013]. Continual build-up of air transport with the arrival of the US 375th, 403rd and 433rd Troop Carrier Groups. This is Robert Kelly's second volume in a series that intricately documents the development of military air transport in the South West Pacific Area from 1903 through to the end of World War 2 (1945). A treasure trove of information on air transport and its development, covering nearly four decades of peace and war. Of this second volume, Brian Grafton, [military aviation historian], states 'Kelly's volume two surpassed my expectations. He is providing the story behind the story of the Pacific War and does it very well indeed. He is providing a massive amount of information which explains how the allies were able to conclude the Pacific War so quickly and effectively. This is an exhaustive study of a very specific, very important part of the war against Japan. This series of reference volumes will prove to be of immense importance to those who wish a full understanding of how the battles of the Pacific theatre were fought and won'. Signed by Author(s).
