Not illustrated. 1848 Excerpt: .They will be awarded to the two best students in Moral Philosophy next year. The Gold Medal for the best English Essay by students of the Hooghly College given by Mr. D. Money of the Civil Service, has not been gained this year, but the essay of Chundey Churn Shome was considered deserving of a Silver Medal, for the account of reading and extent of knowledge exhibited by it. Had a similar account of information been produced upon the subject of the essay itself, and had it been pruned of some vicious redundancies of style, the Gold Medal would perhaps have been assigned to it The Silver Medal for the best Bengali essay was awarded to Judoonath Ghose. Mouluvee Wuheedoon Nubee, the Native Deputy Magistrate of Hooghly, forwarded to the Council of Education a handsome present of books, consisting of Knight s Cabinet Edition of Shakespeare, and 12 volumes of the Cabinet Portrait Gallery, to be awarded to the most distinguished student of the Hooghly College in English Literature, as ascertained by the results of the annual scholarship examination for 1848. The prize is awarded to Cally Prosonno Chatterjee. Promotions. The usual promotions, from class to class, were made immediately after the holidays, the utmost care being taken that no boy was promoted to a class for which he was not fully qualified. The rules require that none shall be admitted to the College Department, except such as are either senior scholars, or competent by their...
