Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Libby Jones was thirteen when her mom brought that man home. By fifteen, watching her mom take a beating was nothing new for Libby. She turned a blind eye to keep the peace until her graduation from high school marked her escape into the US Marine Corps. At twenty-three, Libby is ready to rescue her little brother and start a new life. But when tragedy strikes and Libby is left without a family to protect, a random confrontation at a bar provides Libby with a new mission. It's time to even the odds. Libby utilizes all her military training as she scours the countryside in search of potential abusers. She cannot bring back her family, but she can and will save others from their fate. Libby knows what these men look for in a target. She adjusts her personality, and goes on the hunt by becoming the prey.  Denny Blake joined the police department to protect and serve after his grandparents were brutally murdered. Filled with questions he fears he'll never find answers for, Denny goes through his days on auto-pilot until he meets her. Finally, Denny feels connected to someone. Soon, Denny realizes that his new love interest is also his main suspect in a string of unsolved murders. He knows he loves her, but he also understands her and envies her ability to fight back. But can he let her off the hook?.
