The leading essay, The Philosophy of Memory, is an effort to establish the wave or vibration theory of mind. It treats of the common force of nature in its relation to the vital force; the nature of the soul, its possible or probable origin, and its relation to vital manifestations; the nature of mind and conscious as well as subconscious mental activities; of memory as the result of vibrations persistent in the brain cells; of the resemblance between the cast of memories and of the external activities that arouse them, and of the process by which thoughts, ideas, and emotions...
