Y., January 24th, 1866 Ladies and Gentlemen: - There is a land - a beautiful land - emerged from the Atlantic Ocean, and set off from the western shores of Europe; - that is endowed by the bounty of nature, with a vitality equal to, if not superior to any equal circumference of the habitable Globe. A vitality in the salubrity of its climate, - a vitality in the fertility of its soil, - and a glorious vitality in the exalted attributes - in the noble, generous, heroic, - triumphant and undying virtues of its people. A land whose antiquity reaches so far back into the remotest ages, - that it becomes lost in the twilight of Fable. As the golden beams of the sun illumined the Eastern horison, when it arose on the morning of Creation - so the early dawn of that land has been gilded by the golden halo of Oriental origin, institutions, and civilization. That...
